Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Saturday 17 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Good sunny spells and very warm. Cloudier in the northwest.

Today:
Bright across much of the country with the best of the sunshine in the south and east and very warm again. Cloudier in Argyll and the northwest with patchy rain, though the Northern Isles brightening up. Windy in the north.

Tonight:
A fine end to the day across the south and east, but mostly cloudy and breezy in the north and northwest with a little light rain or drizzle possible.

Sunday:
The south and east will be dry and bright with some warm or very warm sunshine. Cloudier across the north and northeast with patchy light rain dying out.

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Staying mainly dry and settled, although some overnight low cloud and mist possible. Bright or sunny spells developing widely, warm or very warm in the sunshine.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.